Day 1 (26May2026):Arrival Hanoi(D)

VN660 26MAYSINHAN 1305/1535

Begin your vacation with a pleasant flight to Hanoi, a city with more than a thousand years of history. Upon arrival, check in to your hotel located in the Hanoi Old Quarter.

Visit the famous Hanoi Train Street, a narrow residential alley where active railway tracks run just inches away from local homes and cafés – a uniquely thrilling urban sight.

Overnight at Rey Hotel Hanoi.

Day 2 (27May2026): Hanoi – Sapa | Cat Cat Village(B/L/D)

Depart for Sapa (approximately 5.5 hours by road). Lunch will be served upon arrival.

After lunch, gather at the hotel lobby for a trekking trip to Cat Cat Village. Nestled in a beautiful valley about 3 km from Sapa Town, Cat Cat is home to the Black H'Mong people and is known for its preserved cultural traditions, terraced rice fields, and traditional handicrafts such as flax twisting and fabric weaving.

Check in to your hotel and enjoy dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight in Amazing Hotel Sapa.

Day 3 (28May2026): Sapa – Fansipan - Dragon Bridge(B/L/D)

After breakfast, begin your Fansipan Mountain excursion. Your guide will walk with you to Sun Plaza Station (300m from Sapa Highland Resort & Spa), where you will take the Mountain Train through the Muong Hoa Valley to the Fansipan Cable Car Station.

Ride the cable car to the summit of Fansipan, the highest peak in Indochina at 3,143m above sea level. Enjoy panoramic views, explore the temples, pagodas and cafés at the summit area.

Note: The funicular train down to the cable car station is available only for elderly guests or pregnant women; others will need to walk.

In the afternoon, proceed to Heaven Gate – Tram Ton Pass, the highest mountain pass in Vietnam at 2,047m above sea level. Visit and check in at the Dragon Walk Glass Bridge.

Free time to explore the Sapa Central Night Market before enjoying dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight in Amazing hotel Sapa.

Day 4 (29May 2026): Lao Chai – Ta Van – Best view Coffee(B/L/D)

After breakfast, depart for Ta Van Village by car. Enjoy a guided walk through village roads and learn about the culture of the H'mong, Dzao, and Giay ethnic groups.

Visit a handicraft house and try traditional activities:

- Linen weaving
- Indigo dyeing
- Batik wax painting
- Making small souvenirs with local artisans

Enjoy a rustic lunch at a traditional stilt house featuring local mountain specialities.

Continue with light trekking to admire the terraced fields of the Muong Hoa Valley, cross the “Love Bridge” and the “Cloud” bamboo bridge.

Then visit Best View Sapa Café, known for its stunning panoramic views of the Hoang Lien Son mountain range and lush valleys. The café features multi-tiered rooftops and glass-viewing areas—perfect for admiring sunrises or “cloud seas.”

Return to central Sapa for dinner.

Overnight in Amazing hotel Sapa.

Day 5 (30May 2026): Sapa – Hanoi Half- day City Tour (B/L/D)

After breakfast, transfer back to Hanoi. Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, enjoy a walking tour of the bustling Hanoi Old Quarter. Experience local life and see iconic landmarks such as:

- Hanoi Opera House
- French Quarter
- St. Joseph Cathedral

Enjoy shopping at Dong Xuan Market before dinner, followed by hotel check-in.

Overnight in Rey Hotel Hanoi.

Day 6 (31May 2026): Hanoi Singapore (B)
